John 3:16

*For God so loved the world,
that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.*

Spiritual and Religious Care

CORRECTIONS AND RESTORATIVE JUSTICE

In the face of crime and conflict, Restorative Justice is a philosophy and an approach that views crime and conflict principally as harm done to people and relationships. It strives to provide support and safe opportunities for the voluntary participation and communication between those affected (victims, offenders, and community) to encourage accountability, reparation, and a movement towards understanding, feelings of satisfaction, healing, safety and a sense of closure.

Restorative Justice is a non-adversarial, non-retributive approach to justice that emphasizes healing in victims, meaningful accountability of offenders, and the involvement of citizens in creating healthier, safer communities.

The Restorative Justice approach is based on values and principles that emphasize:

- | | |
|------------------------|---------------------------|
| • Recognition of Harm | • Voluntary Participation |
| • Inclusion | • Safety |
| • Accountability | • Choice |
| • Facilitated Dialogue | • Holism |
| • Truth | • Reparation |

Matthew 11:28

Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.

WHAT IS SPIRITUAL AND RELIGIOUS CARE?

All persons have spiritual needs and some have religious needs. Our spiritual and religious care programs work with clients and their families to address both of these needs.

Spiritual Resources

Music, prayer, Bibles and other literature, inspirational materials, devotional books, daily readings, and other faith based publications.

These resources can help people find a sense of balance in their lives. They can help people find meaning, comfort, hope, goodness and balance in community when they need it the most.
